

Rosalie Wernimont

Rosalie has been volunteering with Channel One for so long that she can't even remember when she started! We are guessing it has been somewhere between 10-15 years. Since 2005 Rosalie has donated over 600 hours of her time to our food shelf. Rosalie is a staple of Channel One's Thursday afternoons and can usually be seen near our client check-out area.

After realizing that there was great need in our community Rosalie walked in the doors of Channel One and started volunteering. She knew that she had the time and the energy to help in the fight to end hunger. Rosalie loves volunteering at Channel One because of the people. The clients and Channel One staff are the reason she comes back week after week and year after year.

Rosalie loves to travel, so she appreciates the flexibility of Channel One's volunteer program. She recently returned from a trip to Israel, and has plans to visit California later this year. Rosalie would also really like to visit Canada sometime in the future. Besides traveling, Rosalie also enjoys reading when she is not volunteering at Channel One.

Rosalie and her husband, Ron, have four sons. One of her sons passed away, two own Culver's Restaurants, and the other is in law enforcement. Rosalie and Ron also have ten grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Deb Aries, Receptionist, says "Rosalie is always smiling, happy, and willing to help our clients." Thank you, Rosalie, for your many years of service to Channel One!
